Mapping explanatory notes

Copyright statements

Copyright statements are presented in the data dictionary and definitions section at the front of the map book, due to limited space to include this on the individual maps themselves.

Ordnance Survey data

All maps produced as part of the London-West Midlands Environmental Statement (ES) contain Ordnance Survey (OS) data. HS2 Ltd uses the most up-to-date mapping available, where possible, supplied by the OS. As such, we cannot be held responsible for any inaccuracies within this data.

As part of our licence conditions, all digital maps carry a watermark.

Chainage

Most of the maps presented as part of the ES have a chainage value shown next to the alignment. Chainage is presented on the maps in black font, in the form of XX+YYY, for example: 77+000.

Chainage (known as reference chainage) is referenced from Euston station, which is 0+000, and the value presented is in metres. For example, 77+000 refers to the point 77,000m, or 77km, from Euston station. Chainage values increase in intervals dependant on the map scale. For maps at 1:50,000, scale chainage is shown at 5km intervals. For maps at 1:25,000, scale chainage is shown at 2km intervals. For maps at 1:10,000, 1:5,000 and 1:2,500 scales, chainage is shown at 1km intervals.

Chainage has been included on the maps as a useful tool for comparing map sets showing the different environmental themes or engineering plans, due to map sets having different scales and therefore showing differing amounts of alignment on the map.

Map orientation

The majority of the maps presented in these map books are presented with the railway alignment running horizontally across the page. The direction of travel to London would be following the alignment to the right hand side of the page, and the West Midlands to the left.

The exceptions to this are map series LV-02, LV-03, LV-04, LV-07 and LV-08, which present the alignment running from the bottom to the top of the page. This is to allow more of the modelled outputs to be shown at the appropriate map scale. In this instance, the direction of travel to London would be to the bottom of the page, and the West Midlands to the top.

Map books

There are a total of 76 map books in the ES, spread across Volumes 2, 4 and 5. A list of the titles is provided in the table below for reference.
